News from Other Family Medicine Organizations...

Chief Resident Leadership Development Program

Registration is now open for the AAFP's Chief Resident Leadership Development Program—the only national program of its kind dedicated exclusively to family medicine chief residents.

The kick-off is May 18-20 or 20-22 in Kansas City, MO. Chief residents will also regroup, recharge, and enhance their leadership skills at the fall workshop, held at the AAFP Family Medicine Experience, September 13-15 in San Antonio, TX.

Cost is $1,050 (This registration fee covers the entire yearlong program.)

National Conference Poster Presentations

Annual Meeting Highlights

The AFMRD Annual Meeting was held March 25 in Kansas City, MO.

Dr. Timothy Munzing was presented with the 2017 Nikitas J. Zervanos Outstanding Program Director Award.

The following members received Program Director Recognition Awards:

The following members were elected to positions on the AFMRD Board of Directors:

W. Fred Miser, MD - president-elect

Gretchen Irwin, MD, MBA - treasurer

Curtis Galke, DO - member-at-large

Jennifer Swoyer, DO - member-at-large

Elections were completed with a single vote, thanks to our updated simple plurality election process.

The recommended bylaws changes were approved.

Members shared concerns, information, and ideas during our open mic session.

Members enjoyed a short video featuring an overview of AFMRD activities.

Outgoing President Dr. James Jarvis presented the AFMRD President's Award to his wife and daughters, and Dr. Karen Mitchell spoke as our new president.

See the Annual Meeting web page for photos and more information on the meeting.

NIPDD Graduation and Class Reunion

The National Institute for Program Director Development (NIPDD) graduated 56 fellows on March 24 in Kansas City.

A lively reception and NIPDD class reunion followed the graduation ceremony.

Dr. Ed Onusko and members of the NIPDD class of 2010 provided some humorous entertainment.

Resident Award Certificates

The AFMRD offers the opportunity for you to recognize your residents for their work in advocacy and scholarship.

The Resident Award for Scholarship, provided by the AFMRD and the North American Primary Care Research Group, allows family medicine residency directors to recognize a resident who has engaged in scholarly activity, as defined by the criteria on the AFMRD website.

The AFMRD Resident Award for Advocacy allows you to recognize a resident who has demonstrated skills and interest in advocacy. See the AFMRD website for eligibility criteria.

To receive a certificate suitable for printing and framing, order online now through July 1.
